This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

REPORT.

GENERAL TREASURER'S OFFICE,

PROVIDENCE, R. I., January 1, 1908.

To the Honorable General Assembly of the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations:

In accordance with the provisions of Chapter 33, Title VI, of the General Laws, I submit a detailed statement of the receipts and expenditures of the treasury department for the fiscal year ending December 31, 1907.

The enactment of Chapter 1246, Public Laws, making the local valuation of the several towns and cities the basis of assessment of the State tax, the additional revenue derived from rental of oyster lands, the increase in taxes paid by savings banks, trust companies, and trolley roads, has added to the current receipts during the past two years about ten per cent. The tables below show the expenditures have increased in a corresponding ratio, and nearly equal the receipts.

A conservative estimate of receipts for 1908, in round numbers, is $2,049,375; fixed charges and expenses, $1,687,160; and the unexpended balances of special appropriations, $346,620.

In addition to the above, the present General Assembly will be asked to provide for the salary and expenses of a bank examiner, for the care of the Providence Armory nearing completion, for the maintenance of the Rhode Island School for Feeble Minded, for interest on the Metropolitan Park bonds authorized by the legislature, for a sinking fund to meet the payment of the bonds at maturity, and for the enhanced cost of material and supplies for the maintenance of the charitable, benevolent, and penal institutions of the State. It is evident that more revenue is absolutely necessary to meet these demands upon the treasury unless appropriations for special objects cease or are reduced to a minimum.

The State has been unable to obtain a full settlement of its claim against the United States for enrolling, equipping, and subsisting its troops in the Spanish-American War. The original and supplemental claim amounts to $213,533.86. Of this amount $161,070.85 has been paid, leaving a balance due of $52,463.01. A bill has been prepared for presentation to Congress for the payment of the above amount.

In the Appendix may be found a statement in detail of the State House, Armory, and Highway Sinking Funds, the Permanent School Fund, the Touro Jewish Synagogue Fund, the Land Grant Fund of 1862, and sundry other funds in custody of the State. Also a list of unexpended balances of special appropriations, and the sources of State revenue with the amount derived from each.
